Cognizant coding services

Enhance coding accuracy and collect revenue faster

Coding is one of the most important aspects of the revenue cycle. Reviewing each diagnosis and procedure code for accuracy, sequencing and documentation - while meeting payer and hospital system guidelines - can be challenging. With increasing coding changes and reporting measures, healthcare providers are struggling to find skilled professionals who can sustain coding accuracy, adhere to compliance rules and keep reimbursements consistent.

Cognizant provides customized coding services for hospital systems and physician practices of various types and sizes. We have credentialed (RHIA, RHIT, CCS, CPC, CCDS and AHIMA ICD-10 approved trainers) coders with an average of 10 years of experience. Our experts are available to assist clients with contract coding, whether there is a long-term need, a backlog, a leave of absence or short-term needs. We have experience with remote
